

POLICY: HOUSING AND BOARD

Indiana University School of Medicine—Moi University School of Medicine Housing and Board Policies

- 1) Faculty and residents will be housed at the IU House Compound on a space available basis. Spouses and dependents may stay on a space available basis.
- 2) Meals will be served at IU House Sunday evening through Friday. Food for breakfast, lunch and dinner is available for faculty and residents seven days per week.
- 3) Medical students: will be placed preferentially in the medical student dormitories at the School of Medicine. Students will pay $38/week for room. Students are expected to purchase their own food on a daily basis. The cost of food is anywhere from $2.50 to $10/day. Students should bring enough money with them to pay for their own food expenses. Note: Do not pay anyone at the hostel for your room. If asked for payment, please inform Dunia Karama. Medical students with spouses will be housed at the IU House Compound on a space available basis and will pay $38/day to defray the cost of room/board and programmatic expenses. Spouses of medical students will pay $20/day, and dependents will each pay $20/day.
- 4) Medical Residents from IU School of Medicine and AMPATH Schools of Medicine: will stay at the IU House Compound and will pay $38/day to defray the cost of room, board, and programmatic expenses. Spouses will pay $20/day, and dependents will each pay $20/day.
- 5) All other persons affiliated with the IU School of Medicine or AMPATH Schools of Medicine: will stay at IU House on a space available basis and will pay $58 per night to defray the cost of room, board, and programmatic expenses. Spouses will pay an additional $20/day. Dependents will each pay an additional $20/day. A detailed and prorated schedule of room and board charges is available from Ron Pettigrew.
- 6) Any persons affiliated with the IU School of Medicine or AMPATH Schools of Medicine staying over 30 days: will pay $38/day for the entire length of their stay
- 7) Persons traveling to Kenya for research projects: room and board rates for research personnel will be determined. Please check with Ron Pettigrew for the current rate structure.
- 8) All persons staying at the IU House Compound are expected to pre-pay the charges for room, board and programmatic expenses. There will be no room and board rebate for time spent away from Eldoret. Before departing for Kenya, payment should be made to the IU-Kenya Program Office in Indianapolis. Checks should be made payable to “IIGH, Inc.” and given to Sally Ben-hameda or Ron Pettigrew for deposit at least two weeks prior to your departure day.
- 9) IUSM Students and Residents are offered the use of a Kenyan cell phone to be checked out of the IU-Kenya office before departure with a $70 deposit. Upon return of the cell phone to the IUKP office, the student or resident will receive his/her $70 deposit back. Check with Ron Pettigrew for more details. If phones are not available, a mobile phone will be available through the IU House office.
- 10) Charges for room, board, and programmatic expenses do not include such items as fax, phone usage, in-country travel, snacks, meals taken away from the IU House, weekend safaris, etc. Persons using such services or participating in such activities may be charged additional costs as determined by the Kenya Program Administrator. Invoices for extra charges incurred while in Kenya will be prepared and invoiced to you before your departure from IU House.
- 11) All charges are current as of 6/1/2013 but are subject to change without prior notice.
